

DHAMSAA WARRA: Ogaden National Liberation Front (ONLF)

Despite hard challenges and grievances such as extrajudicial killings ,rape , torture, harassment, ethnic cleansing , genocide, sanction , travel bans and any kind of inhuman treatment from Addis Ababa regimes namely the Minilike, Hailelasee, Mangistu, the today's males against the Somalis in the Ogaden region , Ogaden people maintained to struggle and never surrendered themselves to the tyranny successive occupants or colonizers.

Ogaden people wages successive wars that were locally and internationally recorded such as the Darwish straggle, the 1964-4 war of Nasrulha or Ogaden liberation front (OLF), the 1977-8 Ogaden war and lastly the today's Ogaden National Liberation Front (ONLF).

Therefore Ogaden people supports any kind of struggle from the occupied /colonized people against occupations /colonization in particular, the Ogaden people recognize and support the Oromo people self –defense and determination rights, more over, Ogaden people recognize the importance to unite the two communities and strength their ties in terms of social and political in order to overcome the responsive and murdering oriented regime of the minority Tigray.

Appeal:

- ❖ We are calling the Oromo and Ogaden people to came together to end the long enough lasted brutal regime of Meles Zenawi.
- ❖ We are calling the Oromo and Ogaden people to look suspiciously the politically motivated in fighting the Tigray regime and co assistances
- ❖ We are calling the Oromo and Ogaden people to avoid community splits and factional division which are always the tactical fight of TPLF to undermine and weaken the strength of the struggling people.
